

Course Contents for Documentum Web Publisher Training

Total Hours : 60

Section – 1: Web Publisher Fundamentals

1.1

- Web Publisher Overview
- Describe the purpose and features of Web Publisher
- Discuss user roles
- Discuss in detail the role of the web administrator
- Describe the product architecture

1.2

- Product Installation
- Install Documentation
- Install Site Caching Services
- Install FTP Services
- Install Web Publisher
- Demo & Lab Session

1.3

- Publishing Content
- Create site publishing configurations to publish WIP, Staging, and Active content
- Configure for synchronous and asynchronous publishing
- Perform End-To-End Test on a site publishing configuration
- Run a site publishing configuration, to copy files and metadata to a target Web Site.
- Demo & Lab Session

1.4

- Web Publisher Components
- Describe the features in the Web Publisher administrator user interface
- Analyze the components of the WebPublisher DAR file
- Describe the default lifecycles, process workflows, and alias sets
- Create and use change Sets
- Demo & Lab Session

1.5

- Working with Files and Folders
- Use Web Publisher to manage files and folders
- Participate in workflows
- Demo & Lab Session

1.6

- Configuring Web Publisher
- Create Web Cabinets and Folders
- Create and export editions
- Configure Web Publisher jobs
- Configure Web Publisher roles
- Change settings in Web Publisher configuration files
- Create content categories
- Edit the folder map

- Demo & Lab Session

1.7

- Site Builder
- Create a Site from An Existing Site
- Create a Site Template
- Use a Site Template
- Demo & Lab Session

1.8

- Application development.